

Quantum groups and edge contraction

Edge contraction is a simple operation on graphs that produces a new graph by merging two vertices on a given graph along an edge. In this talk, I will report recent studies on the behaviors of representation-theoretic objects attached to graphs under an edge contraction operation.