I. Your Opinions Prior To the Class:

1. How serious is the situation described in the case?
   a. The vice-president of production was told to expand the production capacity 31 percentage in the next five years.
   b. No one knows cost, timetable and value to the firm.

2. What appears to be the most significant challenge faced by the major players?
   a. The expend of main factory is huge and they only study it for two days to make a decision and even plan for future 20% of expansion.

3. What would you recommend as the best plan of action going forward for the company?
   a. Ensure to reduce workplace injuries.
   b. Fully use of project management in manufacturing firms.
II. During the Case Presentation as you consider the points made by the group:

1. What may you have missed that was important?

2. Why was this case selected for this class?

3. What question(s) remains unanswered as you see it?

Signature: ________________________________  Date: __________