About Myself Paragraph Editing

Use the article "a" in front of singular, count nouns. Don't use a in front of noncount nouns.
Example:  There is a book on the table.
          There is water on the table.

1. I became a French teacher.
2. I was a refugee for 12 years in my country.
3. I want to get a job and improve my English.
4. I have a great family.
5. I got a diploma in laboratory science.
6. My wife is a student here, too.
7. She was a very good teacher.
8. I am a very friendly person.
9.

Every sentence has a verb in it.

1. I am from Puerto Rico.
2. All of my family still there except one brother and three sisters.
3. I heard about the EOC, and I was really interested in it.
4. Now, I am really happy to have a good opportunity to get an education.
5. My job right now is a housewife.
6. My school is very big and beautiful.
Some verbs need "to" if they are followed by another verb instead of a noun.
Example:  I want to go to the store.
           I want apples.
I love spend time with my family.
I like help others.

Don't use the "to be" verb (am, is, are, was, were) in front of active verbs unless it is the present continuous.
Example:  I am working right now.
           I worked yesterday.

1. I was grew up in Thailand.
2. I have be work there one year and three months.
3. When I left my country, I was a student and I was already finished my high school.
4. My whole family is live in the USA.
5. I'm not watch TV.
6. I got many awards when I was worked.