My childhood friend name was Linda. We met when we were children. She mother was best friends with me mother. Linda had a younger sister. She name was Barbara. Most weekends I played at they house because they lived on a farm. First, I would help them clean them house. They house was bigger than our. Me friend mother would say, “Who will clean which room?” Linda always said, “The bedroom is our, and the bathroom is Barabaras.” Nobody wanted to clean the bathroom. When we were finished cleaning, we went outside to play in them fields. Us childhood was very happy.
