Rachel’s mother, Ruth, has a busy and interesting life. Ruth usually wakes up at 6:30 A.M. Then she likes to lie in bed for a while and drink coffee. After about half an hour, she likes to get up and go to work on the trees and flowers around the apartment. At about 8:00 she goes back inside and takes a shower. Then she dresses, and goes to exercise with her friends. When she finishes her exercises, she goes shopping. She comes home at around 10:30, cleans the house, and cooks some lunch. From 12:00 to 12:30, she eats lunch with her husband, Shuka. From then until 7:30, she teaches piano, organ, and accordion to her students. When she finishes, she eats dinner with her husband. In the evening she likes to play cards or go dancing. At about 11:30, she and her husband usually go to sleep.
