

pexes, completed in 2020, interrogates the differences between relational and transactional connections among musical materials, and explores whether these connections succeed in becoming transformational or remain developmental. pexes is dedicated to the memory of the composer Erik Oña. duration: 10:40