

THE PORKARD REPORT

JUNE 1991

SPRING CELEBRATION BIG SUCCESS

The 10th annual Wart County Floral and Pet Show brought out the best floral arrangements and pets that have ever been displayed. The two day affair brought contestants from as far away as 100 miles to compete for the largest ever cash prizes.

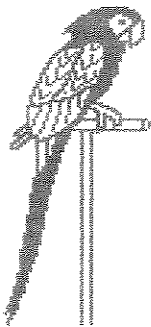

Festivities started on Saturday with a short parade. The high school band and a float from the ice cream parlor made their way through town. This year they played a different song the second time around the block.

When judging started there was quite a ruckus. Ms. Logan was told she could not enter her husband in any of the pet categories. Things quieted down after she was given her choice to enter him as either a fruit or vegetable.

Sunday, Mr. Hanger became the big winner when he received $100 for his flower arrangement and the $50 prize in the Bird category. Mr. Hanger said he now understands the old saying, "A bush in the hand is worth two birds."

Sam & Son

Dad, what is NEBULOUS?

Well son, suppose someone was to cut off
the tip of your tail.
That would be the
NUB YOU LOST.

PIG HEALED BY TV MINISTRY

Eighty-four year old Ben Seraphic had not been able to walk for the last ten years after breaking his hip while broad jumping.

Last sunday was the first time Ben found the strength to stand, due in part to a religious television program.

Ben stated, "I was flipping the channels when my remote control broke. The TV was stuck on a religious program; so I started to watch. I watched for a few minutes and got so sick of hearing him ask for money that I had to get out of bed to switch the channel."

Letter to the Editors

Dear Editor,

Who Cares?

Yours Truly,
Ann Opinion

Readers views are not necessarily those of the managers and staff of the Porkard Report.

MOVIES IN REVIEW "A VIEW TO A GRILL"

James Barn, secret agent 770, is at his chilling best in this spy thriller.

James must pose as a short order cook at the evil Dr. Hogsnot's favorite bar & grill. When Hogsnot finds a bug in his soup, he suspects something is brewing.

Things start to sizzle when the heat gets turned up. Will James foil Hogsnot's plans or will he become just another turkey burger?

