Four Girls Win Dunkirk Library Reading Contest

Four girls won the summer reading contest at the Dunkirk Free Library. In the third-fifth grade group, Susan Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Brown, Jr., 249 Lord Street, read 148 books. Kelly Hollander, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Hollander, 615 Swan Street, followed with a total of 144 books. In the Group K-2, first place was won by Jennifer Renckens, who read 88 books. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Renckens III, 528 Central Ave., Dunkirk. Second place in this group was won by Patricia O'Connell, who read 68 books. Patricia is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jeffrey O'Connell, 115 W. 4th St., Dunkirk. The theme of the contest this summer was "Library Locomotive". A large map of the United States was drawn on a 4' x 8' board. Every time a contestant borrowed, read and returned 4 books he pinned a paper locomotive on the map wherever he wished to visit. Each reader taking part in this activity also received a booklet in which to list the books he or she read in the two months the contest was in progress. The four winners received their prizes at a special program in the Children's Department at the Library on Saturday.

Candidates Will Address Local Democratic Club

The Dunkirk Democratic Women's Club will meet at 8 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 23 at the City Employee's Building (behind the Dunkirk Water Filtration Plant) on Lake Shore Drive, West, Dunkirk.

The public is invited to join the group at 9 o'clock to hear speakers Frank Bratt of Jamestown, Chautauqua County Legislature chairman seeking the State Senate seat from the 57th District, and Donald Cole, appointed Chautauqua County clerk, seeking a full three-year term. Refreshments will be served.

SCHOOL HOUSE '76

GENERAL CHAIRMAN, Mrs. Albert W. Foley shows but a few of the handmade items reflecting the theme of the forthcoming bazaar to benefit the Women's Auxiliary of Brooks Hospital. Visitors to the bazaar, which will be held from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 9 at the Fredonia High School, will be able to purchase these and many more articles made during the two years spent preparing for the bazaar.

Mrs. Foley is holding a child's yellow rain slicker to which has been sewn a fabric sailboat and, on the back, a rainbow-sun motif. The denim and rick-rack bag she is holding contains a slate, eraser and chalk; and the gold and red "boy in slicker" dolls displayed are really stuffed pillows suitable for a youngster's crib or bed. The pillows are displayed on a painted black school desk, another sale item.

The chairman is wearing a blue and white ticking apron decorated with a bright red fabric apple, another original gift; and on her jacket lapel, a wooden red apple, one of hundreds being made and sold by the committee to promote the bazaar. "Schoolhouse '76" has been put together by Mrs. Foley with assistance from a great many women including: Mrs. William B. Aular, Mrs. Robert Beck, Mrs. Harry E. Centner, Mrs. James P. Foley, Mrs. Robert A. Kerrick, Mrs. Robert P. Meister Jr., and Mrs. George B. Weaver Jr.

Also involved with the bazaar are: Mrs. David Kuzdzal and Mrs. Andrew J. Nichols, secretary and treasurer, respectively; Mrs. John R. Forbes, auxiliary president; Mrs. Robert L. Nevinger and Mrs. J. Robert Soch, assistance committee; Mrs. Hack Arroe and Mrs. William Craig, supplies; Mrs. Douglas Golder, wood wares; Mrs. Arnold B. Victor and Mrs. R. S. Gopalan, who will assist in the cafeteria snack bar.

The snack bar, which has Mrs. Nelson C. Wood and Mrs. J. I. Shumaker, as chairman, will serve homemade vegetable soup, a layered sandwich, and applesauce cake prepared by students at BOCES under the supervision of Mrs. Ruth Wilson. (OBSERVER Photo)

How's that again? "We pay more for our used cars so we can sell them for less." — TV commercial heard in Seattle.

ALI FOR WHO?

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Muhammad Ali heads a list of the "ten most wanted men for God and country" released by evangelist Bob Harrington.

Ali, a vocal supporter of the Muslim faith, is followed on the list by Johnny Carson, Hugh Hefner, Elvis Presley, A.J. Foyt, Evel Knievel, Joe Namath, Howard Cosell, Walter Cronkite and Henry Ford II.

"In no way am I judging their faith," Harrington said, "but I'm saying if they spoke out for Christ and country they would have great influence on the nation."

ALL...TO ALL...

BOSTON (UPI) — Jimmy Carter has "the vision of Franklin Delano Roosevelt, the courage of Harry S. Truman, the intellect of John F. Kennedy and the compassion of Lyndon B. Johnson."

That's the unabashed opinion of former House Speaker John W. McCormack, issued as he became honorary chairman of Jimmy Carter's presidential campaign in Massachusetts.

The Canadian National Railways' three nine-car Turbo trains, which travel between Montreal and Toronto, have a reliability record of 98.6% on scheduled runs.
