A Russian Heroine

By P. A. Michel

The following persons were in the second column of the United States Post Office:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Name</th>
<th>Occupation</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>John Harris</td>
<td>Grandfather</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Foster Adams</td>
<td>Soldier</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Thomas Harrison</td>
<td>Pilot</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Charles Whiting</td>
<td>Writer</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>David Brown</td>
<td>Architect</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

John Harris was a soldier who lived near the border of the United States and Canada. He was a brave soldier who fought hard against the enemy.

Foster Adams was a pilot who flew across the country. He was a very skilled pilot and flew many missions.

Thomas Harrison was a writer who wrote many books. He was a very skilled writer and was very famous for his books.

Charles Whiting was an architect who designed many buildings. He was a very skilled architect and was very famous for his buildings.

David Brown was a pilot who flew across the United States. He was a very skilled pilot and flew many missions.

First National Bank

of Cherry Tree, Pa.

Copyright Hart Schaffner & Marx

Great Preparations for the Young Men

Our collection of fall styles for young men is unusually complete; here are some of the newest things.

Sport suits by Hart Schaffner & Marx with wide banded lapels to set off the brighter colors and wavers. The famous Varity Fifty Five suits.

Trench coats in the military design; light double cloths for cool days or for rainy days.

Knock and Stetson soft hats in the latest colors and models.

A variety of striking patterns; full colorings.

Something different in neckwear and holstery, besides a host of other interesting things.

Don't wait until you've ready to buy—come now and just look around.

Moorhead Bros

The Home of Hart Schaffner & Marx Uniforms