SEES SOLDIER SON ON GERMAN SOIL

First Visit by an A. E. F. Mother to American Army of Occupation Camp.

By GRACE GOULDER
(With the American Y. W. C. A. Overseas)

Coblenz, Germany, March 21.—(By Mail).—It happened right here in Coblenz.

A big corporal came into the Y. W. C. A. Hostel House and asked for the director, Miss Ruth Woodruff, who comes from Colorado Springs, Colo.

"Could my mother stay here?" he began at once, trying his best to cover his excitement.

"Your mother," gasped Miss Woodruff. "How did you mother get here?"

"Well, she isn't here yet, but if she comes will you keep her?"

"Of course I will, but—"

She didn't finish for the boy had smashed his cap back on his head and was out of the door on a run.

The corporal's visit remained a mystery for two days. Then one evening just at dusk, a little, white haired woman dressed exquisitely in black appeared in the sitting room of the Hostel House and the corporal was hovering behind her, trying to be beside of her and back of her and in front of her all at once. He was carrying her coat, a big for one. With them were three doughboys, pals of the corporal. One of them carried a woman's handbag—evidently belonging to the little white haired lady. They tried to keep in the background but their eyes were glued on her face.

Everyone in the sitting room sat at attention. There was no English speaking men or women out of uniform in the Third Army area. Yet here was a woman in civilian clothes. Mothers are unheard of with the army. But this was a mother, everyone knew.

They sat down in a corner, the three pals on chairs in front of them and the corporal and his mother sitting very close on the same bench. She didn't seem to notice the dozens of other people who were in the other part of the room. She put her little, rather old hands on the big shoulder of the corporal. He was much bigger than she—bulky in a thick army overcoat and brawny as a soldier should be. She tried to put her arms around him but she couldn't. So she just sat there beside him, silently, looking up into his face and fondling his hands.

He took his overcoat off and walked across the room to hang it up. She stood up to peer at him around a pillar, so that she could keep her eyes upon him. Then he sat down beside her again, smiled at her and her eyes as she turned them up at him, filled with tears.

One of the pals stood up, coughed, twirled his hat on one hand and then the other.

"I must go, Mrs. Stepp—" He shook hands violently, turned to go, stopped and burst out, "Golly, it was great to see you—a regular mother!"

The other two followed him at once, saying absolutely nothing and looking very self-conscious. One of them who was six feet tall and must have weighed 200 pounds, walked out on tip toe.

After a while someone found out about the mother. She and her husband, who was born in Germany but had been naturalized, lived in San Francisco. Before the war they left for Weisbaden, Germany that their invalid daughter might have treatment at that famous health resort.

They brought their other children with them. One was Walter, a small boy, and the other was Ralph, the Corporal Stepp of the American Army.

When the war was declared they sent Ralph back to America because he was of military age and they did not want him to fight for the Kaiser. Then America entered the war.

Mrs. Stepp—Mrs. Anna Stepp she is—told this part of the story.

"Until a month ago I hadn't heard from Ralph for two years and a half, even before America got into the war, mail was held up. I didn't know whether he was in the army or not—but I was sure he was because—well because he is an American. Here she stopped a minute to smile up at him.

"After a while we heard from some friends that he was in the army—and that he had come over here. That was all I ever knew. It's nearly five years since I had seen him."

"Of course, it was awfully hard—I couldn't get word to him and he couldn't to me. My husband used to tell me it wouldn't help Ralph any for me to cry. I tried not to—before the rest of them anyway. My daughter got worse steadily—she is no better. We couldn't get the proper food for her after a while. And she hated to see me worried about Ralph, so I used to try to keep up before them.

"Last January my husband came to Coblenz about his citizen papers. An American soldier in Ralph's company who was in the office heard his name and asked him if he was any relation to Ralph. He didn't tell him Ralph was in Coblenz, but went after Ralph. He didn't tell Ralph his father was here. When they met they couldn't believe their eyes.

"Ever since then I have been trying to see Ralph. He couldn't come to Weisbaden because it was out of the American area and I couldn't get through until today—more than two months."

"They asked me if Ralph had changed much in all that time."

"Oh yes—very much. But do you know I think it is because all that long time I didn't know where he was or how he was—I got in the habit of thinking of him as he was when he was a baby. I kept seeing him as a baby and remembering the way he felt when he was little. Isn't that queer? And now look at him!"

And the corporal tried not to see the admiration in her eyes.

"The years is a long time to wait to see your boy," she murmured, and kept her eyes on him. At last she had for given the people around her. The corporal cleared his throat.

WOMAN HONORED BY FILIPINO MISSION

The Philippine commission is the first of the foreign commissions to designate women to assist in a public ceremony. Madame de Veyre, wife of the Philippine representative in congress, assisted recently in the ceremony of placing a wreath on the tomb of Washington in behalf of the Philippine commission, which has been in Washington the past week for the purpose of obtaining independence for the islands.

This is why I asked you if you could keep my mother, Miss Woodruff. I didn't want her to come unless she had a good place to stay. Ah, see, thanks awfully."

And that is the story of how the Hostel House happened to entertain the only known A. E. F. mother who has visited the army of occupation.

If You Have a Little, Invest a Lot.

If I were a banker, I'd rather urge the people to borrow than to deposit, wherever the result of borrowing is an economy, or where good investments can be made. I'd show them how to get the money on sound business principles, which I would explain when you offered your note with a proper indorsement.—Bolton Hall is "Thrill."

The Bank Asks for Loans.

When you deposit money, instead of spending, you are lending money to the bank, to be returned on call or on notice. So also when you buy a marketable bond. Also you are building up credit for yourself.—Bolton Hall is "Thrill."

BEFORE OR AFTER INFLUENZA

By Dr. M. Cook

The cool fighter always wins and so there is no need to become panic-stricken. Avoid fear and crowds. Exercise in the fresh air and practise the three C's: a Clean Mouth, a Clean Skin and Clean Bowels. To carry off the poisons that accumulate within the body, and to ward off an attack of the influenza bacillus, take a good liver regulator to move the bowels, such as Castor Oil or a pill made up of May-apple, leave. A slice and root of jalap, to be had at any drug store, and called Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

The system should be built up by the use of a good iron tonic, such as "Iron-Tonic" tablets, to be obtained at some drug stores, or that well known blood-maker and herbal tonic made from roots and herbs of forest trees—sold everywhere as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

For a tonic that will freshen up the food, clean the digestive tract and put new force and vim into you, I know of nothing better than Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery—and it contains no alcohol or narcotic so is perfectly safe to take.

Feeble Old People Vinol is What You Need!

because it contains the very elements needed to replace weakness with strength, viz: Beef and Cod Liver Peptones, Iron and Manganese Peptonates, and Glycerophosphates, with a mild tonic wine. This is a splendid combination to restore strength, vitality and vigor. It has given ninety percent satisfaction for sixteen years. HERE IS PROOF:

Malone, N.Y. "I am 84 years of age and got into a feeble, weak and nervous condition so I could not sleep. Vinol has not only built up my strength but I have given me a good appetite and I sleep all right now. Without doubt Vinol is the greatest strengthener for old people obtainable."—Mrs. S.B. Wells.

Winchester, Va. "I am a farmer's wife, 75 years of age, and pneumonia left me in a weak, run-down condition, so I could hardly keep about and do my work. A neighbor brought me Vinol and it has built up my strength so fast that I think it is the best medicine I have ever taken."—Mrs. Jennie Chapman.

For all run-down, nervous, anemic conditions, weak women, overworked men, feeble old people and delicate children, there is no remedy like Vinol.
