LILY DALE SEASON NOW IN FULL SWING

John Slater Appearing This Week at Cassadaga Lake Assembly.

Cassadaga, July 3.—The fiftieth season of the Lily Dale Assembly is now in full swing, opening on June 28, with Howard N. Sibley as chairman of a short morning service. In the afternoon, President Fred Constantine of Buffalo welcomed visitors to Lily Dale, the oldest Spiritualist institution in the country.

Dr. Alexander J. McIvor Tyndall was the next speaker, who told of the present outlook for Spiritualism, and the need of constructive thought. Dr. C. A. Burgess, the treasurer, spoke of the work that has been done during the past year, and the interest taken by cottage-owners in improving their property. Jack Withersell is the superintendent of grounds.

In the evening, a public reception was held in the auditorium. The two hotels at Lily Dale are receiving reservations daily, the lectures have been well attended and the dance on Saturday evening drew a large crowd. Barney O'Connor's orchestra is playing this season.

M. E. Cadwallader of Chicago, Charles Morrow of Buffalo, Dr. A. J. McIvor Tyndall and John Slater have been the speakers so far this week. The ladies' auxiliary has held a card party and readings, and the circus point to a busy season. Tonight John Slater holds his first circle in the octagon at eight o'clock, and there will be a dance in the auditorium at nine o'clock.
