RAIN OR SHINE-Salvation Army Day Camp Has Varied Programs

The fourth week of the Salvation Army day camp will begin Monday, July 27. This past week activities have included an afternoon of swimming at Sheridan Bay park, a trip to the aquarium at Niagara Falls, and a day of hiking and games at Lake Erie State Park. Rainy days were spent at crafts, games and movies and home economic demonstrations by Mrs. Katherine Parmelee.

On the program planned for this week is a trip to Chautauqua where the children hope to sit in on a rehearsal of the symphony orchestra. Largely volunteer, the day camp staff includes many Jamestown residents, each with a genuine interest in the children enrolled in the daily classes. Their primary goal is to instill in each child a healthy set of values that are so basic to the welfare of modern society if it is to maintain a proper relationship of man to man, and man to God:

The day campers (ages 6 through .12) attend 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. sessions Monday through Friday with Daniel Fray, camp director. Each child provides his, or her, own lunch and the Salvation Army provides the beverage.
