Course description
This seminar is designed to introduce students to the historical and contemporary issues related to U.S. foreign policy. We will first review the history of American foreign policy in the 20th century with an emphasis on national security issues. Then the course will proceed with an in-depth coverage of major groups and institutions involved in formulating American foreign policy. The particular focus will be on the roles of the presidency, Congress, executive branch (e.g., State Department), interest groups, mass media, and public opinion.

Required readings
There is one required textbook for the course that can be purchased at the UB North Campus bookstore:

In addition to this text, a number of book chapters, journal articles, and documents will also be required. They will be available on UB Learns for this course. All the readings must be completed before the first class for which they are assigned.

Course requirements
The final grade in this course will be based on four main components: (1) two in-class examinations, (2) one project and its presentation, (3) four in-class quizzes, and (4) class participation.

Summary of the grade components:
50% Two in-class exams (1st exam: 25%; 2nd exam: 25%)
25% Project (project 15%; PPT in-class presentation 10%)
15% Four pop quizzes
10% Seminar participation

1. Two in-class examinations (50% total; 25% each)
   The exams will be a combination of multiple choice, short answer, and essay questions. Each exam will be worth a total of 25% of the student’s final grade. Questions will be based on the student’s comprehension of both the assigned reading materials and the class lectures.

2. Project and class presentation (25%):
   Each student will write a paper (6 double-spaced pages) and give a class presentation in PowerPoint on one from the list of project topics. Although several students will prepare their projects under the same general topic, each student will work independently on her/his project that will be graded entirely independently from the others’ in the group. I will lay out the parameters for each group topic on September 12. Each student will have approximately 5-6 minutes for his/her individual presentation. To facilitate coordination among multiple topic preferences, by September 17 you are required to submit to me your top three topic preferences, one of which will be assigned as the topic for your presentation. If I do not receive your topic preferences, I will assign you to one of the topics after considering all the remaining students’ preferences. An assignment sheet listing presentation groups and topics for all students will be posted on UB Learns on September 18 (“Project Group Assignments” file). After this list is posted, the groups will briefly meet in class on September 26 to coordinate individual subtopic assignments within their topic. The deadlines for e-mailing me electronic copies of your PPT slides and essay are listed below. Also, on the scheduled date for your topic, you should bring your PowerPoint project in electronic form for the class presentation and give me a printed copy of both the PPT presentation and essay. Detailed instructions for the project requirements, format, each topic, deadlines, etc., are provided in a separate file available on UBLearns (“Project” file).

3. Four in-class quizzes (15%):
   The quizzes will be multiple choice and the questions will be based on the class readings and lectures. The dates of the quizzes will not be announced ahead of time, so if you know in advance that you will be missing a class for a university excusable reason, let me know early.

4. Class participation (10%)
   Class participation is based on active participation in class discussions. The students are expected to come to class having read the material and able to answer questions and/or engage in informed discussion. This can only be done if you conduct yourselves in a professional manner and are tolerant of other students’ ideas, even if they directly contradict you own personal views.

Summary of important dates:
September 12 - project overview
September 17 - deadline for submitting three out of five topic preferences (bring to class)

Electronic Communication

I encourage students to visit me during my office hours for any questions and inquiries. If the circumstances necessitate it, you can also e-mail me on weekdays. The project assignments must also be submitted initially through e-mail. Please adhere to the following courtesy policy for this course when e-mailing me: (1) use only your UB e-mail address; (2) do address me properly in the message and sign it with your full name; (3) keep your message brief and, when submitting the project, provide the information about the project’s topic and the files you are attaching; (4) do not forget to attach the project files and make sure to wait for my confirmation (see “Project” file on UBLearns for further details).
