

CONFLICT & DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Reflection Paper #1: Grading Rubric

Student:

Points Earned:

Grader:

Normalized Grade:

	Excellent	Satisfactory	Mediocre	Unacceptable
General Academic Paper Requirements
Follows the "General Technical Requirements for Written Assignments" (on page 10 of the syllabus).	0	-2	-4	-5
Followed the conventions of standard English, with no errors hindering comprehension.	0	-2	-4	-5
Organized to convey ideas clearly in a logical fashion.	0	-2	-4	-5
Followed the instructions concerning this paper's topic.	0	-8	-16	-20
Introduction
Clearly presents the main thesis this paper intends to defend.	5	4	2	0
Clearly provides any background information and explains any terminology necessary for someone unfamiliar with this paper's topic to readily understand this paper's main thesis. (This also applies to claims made in the body and conclusion of this paper.)	15	12	6	0
Body
Clearly presents the principle premises, reasons, and/or evidence in support of this paper's main thesis.	15	12	6	0
Clearly and persuasively explains why these premises, reasons, and/or evidence are plausible, compelling, and difficult to deny.	25	20	10	0
Clearly and persuasively explains the inferences used to show how these premises support the main thesis.	25	20	10	0
Provides relevant and concise examples to help clarify and illustrate important points and concepts.	10	8	4	0
Remains focused on defending its main thesis without being distracted by inessential details.	10	8	4	0
Provides a generally compelling defense of its main thesis.	15	12	6	0
Conclusion
Provides one relevant and concrete implication of accepting this paper's main thesis.	15	12	6	0
Overall, demonstrates full comprehension of the paper's topic while adroitly defending its main thesis.	5	4	2	0