

Buffalo Annual Experimental Philosophy Conference Program
University at Buffalo, North Campus
107 Capen Hall, Honors College, Capen Library
Oct. 5-6, 2012

Fri, Oct. 5

- 9-10am Philip Robbins (Missouri), “Persons, Minds, and Morals”
- 10-11am Brian Robinson (Grand Valley State) Paul Stey (Notre Dame) and Mark Alfano, (Oregon),
“Virtue and Vice Attributions in the Business Context: An Experimental Investigation”
- 11-11:15am Coffee break
- 11:15am-12:15pm John Turri (Waterloo), “The Test of Truth”
- 12:15-1:30pm Catered lunch
- 1:30-2:30pm Michael Shaffer (St. Cloud State), “‘Filling In,’ Thought Experiments and Intuitions”
- 2:30-3:30pm Kenneth Shields (Missouri), “Motivational Internalism and Experimental Philosophy”
- 3:30-3:45pm Coffee break
- 3:45-4:45pm Wesley Buckwalter (CUNY), “Factive Verbs and Protagonist Projection”
- 4:45-6:15pm Keynote Address: Joshua Knobe (Yale), “Morality, Modality”
- 6:30pm Catered dinner

Sat., Oct. 6

- 9-10am Abraham Graber (Iowa), “Lessons From Much Ado About Nothing—Methodology and Experimental Semantics”
- 10-11am Madeleine Ransom (British Columbia), “Extensional and Intensional Intuitions in Philosophy Theory Construction”
- 11-11:15am Coffee break
- 11:15am-12:15pm David Rose (Rutgers), “Knowledge Entails Dispositional Belief”
- 12:15-1:45pm Lunch
- 1:45-2:45pm Jesper Kallestrup (Edinburgh), “Counteractuals, Counterfactuals, and Referential Intuitions”
- 2:45-3:45pm Frank Hindriks (Groningen), “The Moral Compositionality Hypothesis: Responsibility and Intentionality Attributions Explained”
- 3:45-4:00pm Coffee break
- 4:00-5:00pm Jen Cole Wright (College of Charleston), “Evidence for Meta-Ethical Pluralism: Implications for Re-Thinking the Moral Domain”
- 5:00-6:00pm Theodore Bach (Bowling Green State University Firelands College), “An Empirical Account of Expert Intuition”