Miss Scott, Mr. Hollander Are Married

St. Mary's church was the setting for the recent marriage of Miss Roberta Anne Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scott of West Second street, Dunkirk to Mr. Kenneth Hollander, son of Mr. Elmer Hollander and the late Mrs. Josephine Hollander of Ruggles street, Dunkirk.

Before an altar banked with white mums and pink carnations, the double-ring ceremony and noon nuptial mass was performed by the Rev. Gregory Paul, CP.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white silk faced Peau, designed with a high beaded collar and beaded cuffs on the short sleeves. A princess effect skirt formed by double inverted pleats, adorned with beaded clusters was complemented by a full chapel length train. A camelot head-piece of lace trimmed with pearls held her bouffant veil of imported silk illusion. She carried a Juliette bouquet of white cattleya orchids and stephanotis.

The maid of honor, Miss Marie Graminski of Buffalo, selected an A-length empire gown of Azalea Pink Karate with pink Venice lace at the wedding ring collar, elbow length sleeves, and Watteau back panel. She wore a matching pink headpiece of illusion petals and leaves trimmed with pearls and a bouffant blusher veil. Her colonial bouquet had pink Sweetheart roses and baby carnations centered with purple violets.

Mrs. Carol Gibbs of North East, Pa., sister of the bride, and Mrs. Janet Hollander of Dunkirk served as bridesmaids and wore gowns similar ar to the maid of honor's. Mr. Allan Hollander of Dunkirk served his brother as best man and Mr. Phillip Hanlon and Mr. Gary Scott ushered.

The bride's mother was attired in a gown of Ming turquoise lace with a matching sheer wool crepe coat. Her feathered hat and accessories were turquoise and her corsage was a white cattleya orchid.

A buffet and reception at the Fireside Manor restaurant followed the ceremony.

The bride was graduated from Dunkirk High and attended Fredonia State University college. She is employed in the business office of the New York Telephone company.

Mr. Hollander is a graduate of Cardinal Mindszenty High school and served in the U. S. Air Force. He is employed at Greater Buffalo Press.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollander have returned from a wedding trip to Fort Lauderdale, Fla. and are at home at 763 Central avenue, Dunkirk.
