

Thoughts

From The Living Bible
No, dear brothers, I am still not all I should be but I am bringing all my energies to bear on this one thing: Forgetting the past and looking forward to what lies ahead, I strain to reach the end of the race and receive the prize for which God is calling us up to heaven because of what Christ Jesus did for us. I hope all of you who are mature Christians will see eye-to-eye with me on these things, and if you disagree on some point, I believe that God will make it plain to you—if you obey the truth.

CHARLES CRONAUER

SILVER CREEK. Charles J. Cronauer, 120 Main St., died at his home Wednesday after a lengthy illness.
Born in Gaines, Pa., April 12, 1889, he was the son of Anthony and Anna Surch Cronauer. He was a retired upholsterer. A member of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church, he belonged to the parish Holy Name Society, was a member of the Knights of Columbus for 36 years and a trustee of the church for 35 years, of the Vincent DePaul Society and of the Dads of the VFW.

He and his wife, the former Bertha A. Diefenbach, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary two months ago.

Besides his wife, he is survived by a son, Frederick C. of Wellsville, a daughter, Mrs. Joseph (Mary Alice) Joy of Fredonia; five sisters, the Misses Agnes, Josephine and Elizabeth Cronauer, all of Wellsville, Miss Anna Cronauer of New Hampshire and Mrs. Augustus (Mary) Mangene of Maryland. Four grandchildren also survive. He was predeceased by a son, William, and by a brother, Anthony.

MIKE ROMANCE

Mike Romance, 78, a resident of Chautauque County Home and Infirmary, died this morning at Brooks Hospital following a short illness.

Born in Braddenville, Pa., Mr. Romance had been a resident of Indiana, Pa., most of his life, coming to the Dunkirk area 11 years ago. He was a retired mine worker in Pennsylvania and a 50-year member of the United Mine Workers of America.

Survivors include one son, Mickey Romance of Dunkirk; two daughters, Mrs. John (Joan) Gula of Dunkirk and Mrs. Donald (Vernice) Gworek of Fredonia; nine grandchildren, and several nieces and nephews.

Teachers Given Tenure At CVCS Board Meeting

SINCLAIRVILLE. — A special school board meeting was held Tuesday evening to consider tenure for Cassadaga Valley Central School staff members eligible under the new state legislation ruling which lowered the probationary teaching period from five to three years.

Effective Sept. 1, tenure was granted Elizabeth Carlson, school nurse-teacher; Sharon Coady, elementary teacher; Robert Davis, physical education teacher; Jacqueline McDonald, speech therapist; Susanna Rumberger, music teacher, and Marsha Sullivan, elementary teacher.

A correction was made in the tenure status of kindergarten teacher Donna Crissey. Miss Crissey had been granted tenure as an elementary teacher, and had requested a correction be made altering the tenure from elementary to kindergarten. The request was granted by school board members.

The resignation of Scott Bowden, elementary teacher, was accepted by the board.

CCC Will Do Repaint Work On Highway Signs

MAYVILLE. — The Chautauque Conservation Corps program will begin painting road direction signs which are in a state of deterioration it was announced here today.

Charles DeAngelo, director of the CCC, said he feels that many of the signs which are chipping and fading need either a touch-up or a complete repaint job.

"The program is just tackling another beautification project such as the stream clean-up, lake clean-up, park clean-up, pe development, and now this painting project. We plan to hit as many sectors of the county as possible," he said.

The program, as a whole, works to improve the environmental qualities of Chautauque County through beautification, staffing of tourist attraction centers, and office assistance planning which employs veterans and individuals 16-25, he explained.

PROBATION RETIREE — Cornell C. McGraw, of Roberts Road, Fredonia, a probation officer in the Dunkirk office of the county Probation Dept. for the past 11 years, was honored by fellow employees at a retirement luncheon at the Mar-Mar Restaurant in Mayville Wednesday. Here Mr. McGraw examines a Revere silver bowl presented by fellow workers as a gift. Department head Carmello Basile, left, looks on. Mr. McGraw began work on May 1, 1963 and will officially retire on July 30. He and his wife Aleetha have two daughters. — (OBSERVER Photo)

'La Boheme,' 4 Performances At Chautauqua

CHAUTAUQUA. — The Chautauque Opera Association brings "La Boheme," Puccini's beautiful opera about the artisans of Paris, to life in four performances Aug. 2, 3, 5 and 10 at Norton Memorial Hall.

Staged by Leonard Treash, general director of the association, "La Boheme" will be presented at 8 p.m. Aug. 2 and 5.

At 2 p.m. Aug. 3, an all-apprentice cast presents the opera and at 2 p.m. Aug. 10, the association's annual Young People's Opera will feature Julia Lovett, Chautauqua's affiliate artist, as Mimì, and apprentice artist in the remaining roles.

Puccini's fourth opera, "La Boheme" is based on Henri Murger's novel, "Scenes de la vie de Boheme." Its characters are said to be fairly accurate portraits of Murger's friends, the artists and women struggling in the Latin Quarter in Paris in the 1830's.

The performances at Chautauqua Aug. 2 and 5 will feature Frank Pullano as Marcello, the baritone painter, Tenor Gordon Greer sings the role of Rodolfo, the poet, and bass Edward White the role of Colline, the philosopher. Baritone Ronald Boudreaux will be featured as Schaunard, the musician.

Mimì, the girl who loves Rodolfo, will be sung by Julia Lovett and Karan Armstrong is featured as Musetta, the girl who loves Marcello.

Associate conductor Wolfgang Schaner, professor and chairman of the music department at Marymount College, will conduct the opera; and the Leonard and Martha Treash translation will be used.

Tickets for the evening and apprentice artist performances of the opera may be purchased at the Chautauqua box office or the following outlying ticket offices: the Chautauque County Chamber of Commerce, Tranter and Dilks in Warren, Pa., the Norton Hall box office at the University of Buffalo, the Winter Company in Erie, the Weatherline in Olean, SUNY at Fredonia, Peak 'n' Peak in Clymer, or the Chautauque Lake Estates Condominiums.

Youth Drowns

WARREN, Pa. (UPI) — Authorities said Ronald Jackson, 17, of the Cattaraugus County, N.Y., community of Limestone, drowned Wednesday night while swimming with companions in the Red Bridge area of the Allegheny Reservoir in neighboring McKean County. Jackson's body was recovered about 1 a.m. today by members of the Warren Underwater Rescue Team. Deputy McKean County Coroner Howard Walters ruled accidental death by drowning.

Authorities said Jackson was involved in a distance swimming contest with his friends when he disappeared beneath the water's surface about halfway from his destination. Rescue efforts by his companions were unsuccessful.

Gerace Resets News Conference For Next Week

MAYVILLE. — Chautauque County Legislature Chairman Joseph Gerace cancelled his news conference set for 9:15 a.m. today.

Mr. Gerace indicated he plans to reschedule the meeting for Monday or Tuesday morning at which time it is expected he will announce the names of the people he has selected for industrial development and civil defense directors.

The industrial development post has been vacant for a month since the resignation of Mr. William Miller, who took a higher paying job in Binghamton. It was learned that Mr. Miller's position will likely be divided between two appointees to handle industrial development in the north and south ends of the county.

The position of civil defense director has been vacant since John D. Palillo resigned under fire in early May. Mr. Gerace says he must appoint a full-time director to that position by Aug. 1 or risk losing federal funds.

DeSylvia Woolley Attends Grange Leadership School

FORESTVILLE. — New York State Grange Princess DeSylvia Woolley and Daniel Woolley, both of Villanova Grange, have just returned from the State Grange leadership school held at Morrisville State Agriculture and Technical College where Miss Woolley was part of the staff.

Miss Woolley recently competed against five other girls in New York State for her title. She will represent New York State at the national convention at Sacramento, Calif., in November.

While at the school the state princess was group leader for discussion, held vespers on Thursday evening and was master of ceremonies for the Friday evening banquet. Friday evening, she spoke on "Unity in Grange Programming." Her brother, Daniel, was a member of the drill team which performed for the lecturer's program after the conferring of the fourth degree by student officers.

$36,000 County Executive Salary Set By Committee

By JIM FOX
Mayville Bureau

MAYVILLE. — The salary for the new office of Chautauque County executive has been tentatively set at $36,000 per year, it was learned here this morning by the EVENING OBSERVER.

The salary — which would make the county executive the second highest on the county payroll — was worked out during a six-hour meeting of the County Legislature Personnel Committee at the Red Coach Inn in Lakewood Wednesday night.

Candidates React Legislature Chairman Joseph Gerace, who sat in on the deliberations Wednesday night and is the Democratic nominee, said this morning he has "no comment."

Robert H. Miller, the Republican candidate and former county treasurer, said:

"When the office was established by the passage of the charter last November and I was approached by many people to run, I did not know what the position would pay, nor was that a consideration in my eventual decision to seek the office. I knew the legislature would set a salary in line with the responsibilities of the job."

"I feel the salary which they have set is well in line with the responsibilities of the job."

Joseph Trusso of Jamestown, chairman of the personnel committee, confirmed that the salary has been set at $36,000 a year. He noted that the question has been before his committee for several months and has been actively discussed at its last four sessions.

"We have made comparisons with county executive salaries paid throughout the state and we feel this figure is in line with what is being paid elsewhere for comparable jobs."

He noted that the figure had received bi-partisan support.

The county executive will receive exactly the same salary as the county's three judges will get after Jan. 1, 1975.

The highest paid county employee is Mental Health Commissioner Dr. Louis Suarez, whose salary is listed in the 1974 budget as $37,801.40.

The commissioner of public health, Dr. Arnold Mazur, receives $35,399 a year and the commissioner of social services, Burton Miner, receives $25,170.60.

The proposal made by the personnel committee Wednesday night is subject to ratification by the full legislature and is expected to come before that body at its special meeting here Aug. 1.

Brocton Tie-in With Sheriff's Dispatcher Effective Aug. 1

BROCTON. — Police Chief Clifford Borst announced today that final plans have been formulated with the Chautauque County Sheriff's Department. The tie-in with the county sheriff's department will go into effect Aug. 1 as planned.

The three major phone numbers that will be listed on phone stickers will be as follows: Fire and ambulance: 792-4242.

Sheriff's department toll free: 792-4334.

Police chief's office: 792-4525.

Fire and emergency and local police numbers have not been changed, the only new number is the toll free number direct to the Chautauque County Sheriff's Department dispatcher.

In police emergency or in times when local police are not on duty, the toll free number is there for citizens to use free of charge.

When local police are on duty, but out on patrol and not able to answer the local police phone, 792-4334 will answer 24 hours per day. The Chautauque County dispatcher can either dispatch local police vehicles or a sheriff patrol vehicle to answer a local call.

The new phone stickers should be ready within a few days, Chief Borst said. They will be available at the village clerk's office or the Brocton Police Department.

Environmentalists Attacked In Case Of Stopping Power Plant's Construction

ALBANY, N.Y. (UPI) — Environmentalists who forced the Consolidated Edison Co. to suspend construction of the Storm King power plant at Cornwall were angrily attacked Wednesday by State Sen. Richard E. Schermerhorn, R-Cornwall.

"This is just another example of obstacles being put in the way of progress by the environmentalists," Schermerhorn said.

Con Ed Chairman Charles Luce had said Tuesday construction on the 2 million kilowatt plant would probably not resume until next year, blaming conservationists for getting a new court hearing on charges the plant will kill fish in the Hudson River.

"This is a needed facility as it will furnish power during the peak periods as well as jobs ... and a boost to the economy in an area that is sorely in need of help," Schermerhorn said.

In a strongly-worded statement, he said he would seek legislation to "prevent such an occurrence in the future." He said he will hold meetings "to develop a plan of action to combat these obstructionists."

"These people are really not interested in the environment, but merely in maintaining their own status quo on cloud nine and at no time consider the economic environment of the vast majority," Schermerhorn said.

R.A. Jaeger Is Clymer School Principal

CLYMER. — Robert A. Jaeger has been appointed supervising principal by the Clymer Central School board of education.

Mr. Jaeger received his master's degree in educational administration with certificates in advanced study and school district administration from Brockport State University College. His bachelor of science degree was acquired from Oswego State University College. He has also completed studies at Gettysburg College and Syracuse University.

Mr. Jaeger's high school education was received in Syracuse. He taught in Rome City school from 1963-67.

Prior to his Clymer appointment, Mr. Jaeger was employed by Attica Central School as elementary principal.

Eastman Sales Up, Earnings Lower

ROCHESTER. — Increased sales for both the second quarter and first half were reported today by Eastman Kodak Company. Earnings were moderately lower when compared with the strong first half of 1973, reflecting the pressures of higher costs and expenses and an unfavorable turnaround in the impact of foreign currency translation adjustments.

Consolidated sales world-wide for the second quarter (12 weeks ended June 16) were $1,030,677,000 or 14 per cent above the $906,707,000 reported for last year. Net earnings were $143,545,000 or 7 per cent lower than the $154,270,000 earned in the second quarter of 1973. The earnings were 89 cents per common share against 96 cents last year.

Sales for the half-year (24 weeks) were $1,965,754,000 or 15 per cent higher than in 1973. Net earnings of $267,880,000, equal to $1.66 per share, were 3 per cent lower than the $277,034,000 or $1.72 per share earned in the first half of 1973.

Earnings from operations for the half-year were $457,394,000 or 5 per cent lower than in the strong first half of 1973. Higher interest income led to pre-tax earnings of $491,880,000 or 3 per cent lower than the $505,534,000 reported in 1973. The provision for income taxes totaled $224,000,000 compared with $228,500,000 last year.
